VIEW OF NEW TESTAMENT

- Bridge now from Daniel to the New Testament.
- Daniel's concern for Jerusalem and the sanctuary: prayer in Daniel 9: very significant.

God's people who embrace the eternal principle will always embrace the truth of the sanctuary: its cleansing, restoration, vindication

VIEW OF NEW TESTAMENT

- Daniel's concern for Jerusalem and the sanctuary:
prayer in Daniel 9: very significant.

VIEW OF NEW TESTAMENT

- Bridge now from Daniel to the New Testament.
- Daniel's concern for Jerusalem and the sanctuary: prayer in Daniel 9: very significant.
- He could not reconcile the 2300 prophetic "days" until the sanctuary was cleansed/restored/vindicated, of the Dan. 8 vision, with the 70 years of Jeremiah (Dan. 9:2, compare with 2 Chron. 36:21; Jer. 25:11, 12).

SUMMARY

- “The Majesty of heaven pleased not Himself. Whatever He did was in reference to the salvation of man. Selfishness in all its forms stood rebuked in His presence. He assumed our nature that He might suffer in our stead, making His soul an offering for sin. He was stricken of God and afflicted to save man from the blow which he deserved because of the transgression of God’s law.

SUMMARY

- “By the light shining from the cross, Christ proposed to draw all men unto Him. His human heart yearned over the race. His arms were opened to receive them, and He invited all to come to Him. His life on earth was one continued act of self-denial and condescension.” {4T 418.3}
